

Reflection Questions

Shift

If the next generation of staff set our strategy, what would shift?

Rushed or Slow

What parts of our business are rushed, and what parts are intentionally slow?

Silenced

Who benefits and who is silenced by certain meeting agendas or by quarterly reviews?

Boardroom Brief by

Charlotte Kemp
FUTURES ALCHEMIST

Time and Agendas as Power Politics

Borrowed Time

Most boardroom decisions are made on borrowed time. What would change if we aligned our strategies with the rhythms of legacy, land, and lineage?

100 years

What would a 100-year version of this organization look like?

5 Minutes

What if the future is already being won or lost in the opening five minutes of your next board meeting?

Productivity

How has the emphasis on productivity stats affected how we view our leadership responsibilities?

Have any questions?
charlotte@futuresalchemist.com